£200 Arena + Camping x4 (saving £40 off price)

Can Anyone Attend:

Stonedead Festival isn't just for adult metal fans it's a family friendly festival, children are most welcome but please remember they will need to be accompanied by a responsible adult!

What Time Does It End:

Festival end time has a curfew of around 11pm.

How Do We Get There:

Located at the Newark Showground

5 minute drive from the A1

10 minutes from East Coast Mainline

Near Newark, Nottingham & Lincoln

The festival will be sign posted for easy locating also there will be buses that come this way.

General Info:

Camping is roughly 75m from the arena.

You can also park very close to your tent.

You can bring your own food, drinks (beer) if you wish to, onsite food & drink will be no more expensive than pub prices.

Newark Showground is flat and surrounded by hard standing and the drainage is helped by grass over hard surface, so hopefully mud free day - but bring your wellies just in case!

There is a place set aside for a cuppa, a total chill area and we have excellent disabled access facilities

Volunteers Needed

Would you like to be part of the inaugural festival? We are looking for volunteers - head over to the website for more details www.stonedeaifestival.co.uk/volunteers/
